

Abstract

A food product is described comprising an aqueous phase and gas microbubbles substantially dispersed in the aqueous phase which gas microbubbles have coating and a mean diameter size distribution with a maximum below 10 μm , wherein the coating substantially consists of protein, wherein the pH of the aqueous phase is from 2.5 to 6.0.

1055467-010000